CHRISTMAS

CALENDAR

Now that you have your list of potential markets, it's time to take the next step:

Plan your schedule on a calendar to track all your dates. This will help you identify any overlapping events or potential clashes.

It's common to apply for multiple markets on the same date, especially when you're unsure which ones will confirm your spot. But once you start receiving confirmations, the real planning begins.

Make a list of the markets you have applied to leavening your top choice at the bottom.
